CRIME ALERT

OFFENSE: Aggravated Sexual Assault/Kidnapping
DATE OCCURRED: Nov 20, 2012
TIME OCCURRED: 7:00 p.m.
LOCATION OCCURRED: Service Drive between RTVF Building & Art Building (300 Welch St)

DETAILS OF EVENT:

The male victim reported to the UNT Police that he was walking along the service drive between the Radio, Television and Film Building and the Art Building when a vehicle (blue 4-door with blue interior, older model possibly Nissan) pulled up beside him. The occupants asked him for directions to Kerr Hall. He willingly got into the vehicle to take them to Kerr Hall. He was immediately accosted. The passenger (a Hispanic male) displayed a knife, and the victim's eyes were covered. The suspects drove him to an unknown nearby but remote location and sexually assaulted him. He was freed on the east side of campus.

SUSPECT(S) DESCRIPTION:

Driver: White male, early 20's, 6-feet tall, muscular build, short brown hair, clean shaven, wearing a blue t-shirt, torn blue jeans, and brown boots.

Passenger: Hispanic male, early 20's, 5-feet, 6-inches tall, stocky build, medium skin color, very dark faux hawk, clean shaven wearing an orange t-shirt, blue jeans, blue and white cheap tennis shoes.

VEHICLE DESCRIPTION (if applicable): Older model blue 4-door sedan with blue interior, possibly a Nissan.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

- Always walk in numbers.
- Tell family or friends your route and destination.
- Never get into a vehicle of individuals you do not know.
- Stay in well lighted areas.
- Carry a cellular phone or become familiar with the emergency telephone locations.
- Immediately report suspicious or dangerous activity to the police by dialing 911.
