

UNT Police Crime Alert

Friday, Oct. 21, 2022

A student reported to the campus Survivor Advocate's Office that she was sexually assaulted early Wednesday morning, Oct. 19, 2022, on campus. The student reported having a few drinks prior to the assault and believes she may have been drugged.

This is an active investigation, and UNT Police encourage anyone with knowledge of the crime to please come forward.

If you have any information regarding this reported offense, contact UNT Criminal Investigative Services at 940-565-3006 or you can remain anonymous by calling 940-369-TIPS (8477).

Sexual assault is not the fault of the survivor. Only a perpetrator can prevent sexual assault. Crime alerts are intended to help the UNT Community stay safe by sharing information about how perpetrators are potentially preying on victims.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

- Immediately report suspicious or dangerous activity to the police by dialing 911.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation feels wrong or dangerous, it may be. Get away, call for help, and listen to your instincts.
- Watch out for your friends and ask them to watch out for you.
- Don't accept a drink from someone else.
- Avoid punch bowls or drinks that are being passed in a group setting.
- Don't leave your drink unattended.
- Be aware that intoxicants, including drugs, can be used to control a potential crime victim.
- Learn more about campus safety resources and programs here: <https://www.unt.edu/story/staying-safe-university-north-texas>.

UNT has a full-time survivor advocate available to any student who has been a victim of violence. The survivor advocate can make safety or academic accommodations, as well as assist with medical attention and/or counseling needs. The survivor advocate is located in the University Union, Room 411, and can be reached at survivoradvocate@unt.edu or 940-565-2648.