

UNT Police Crime Alert

Oct. 31, 2024

UNT Police received a delayed report of a sexual assault that occurred on campus on Oct. 26, 2024. The survivor reported he had been coerced into having sexual intercourse with someone while he was intoxicated.

The identity of the female suspect is known, and police are actively investigating this case.

If you have any information regarding this reported offense, contact UNT Criminal Investigative Services at 940-565-3006 or you can remain anonymous by calling 940-369-TIPS (8477).

Sexual assault is not the fault of the survivor. Only a perpetrator can prevent sexual assault. Crime alerts are intended to help the UNT Community stay safe by sharing information about how perpetrators are potentially preying on victims.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

- Immediately report suspicious or dangerous activity to the police by dialing 911.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation feels wrong or dangerous, it may be. Get away, call for help, and listen to your instincts.
- Watch out for your friends and ask them to watch out for you.
- Don't accept a drink from someone else.
- Be aware that intoxicants, including drugs and alcohol, can be used to control a potential crime victim.

UNT has a full-time survivor advocate available to any student who has been a victim of violence. The survivor advocate can make safety or academic accommodations, as well as assist with medical attention and/or counseling needs. The survivor advocate is located in the University Union, Room 409, and can be reached at survivoradvocate@unt.edu or 940-565-2648.

Campus crime alerts and timely warnings to the community comply with the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act).
