UNT Police Crime Alert

Tuesday, Sept. 12, 2023

On Monday, Sept. 11, 2023, a female student reported to the university that she was sexually assaulted inside a resident room at West Hall on Sept. 11, 2023, by a male she met on a dating app. The suspect is described as an 18-year-old male with tan skin and black hair with a “bowl” style haircut. The female student reported this occurred between 8 and 9 p.m.

The UNT Police Department is investigating this incident. There is no further information to share at this time.

Sexual assault is not the fault of the survivor. Only a perpetrator can prevent sexual assault. Crime alerts are intended to help the UNT Community stay safe by sharing information about how perpetrators are potentially preying on victims.

UNT has a full-time survivor advocate available to any student who has been a victim of violence. The survivor advocate can make safety or academic accommodations, as well as assist with medical attention and/or counseling needs. The survivor advocate is located in the University Union, Room 411, and can be reached at survivoradvocate@unt.edu or 940-565-2648.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

- Social Media Apps, including dating apps, have been used to perpetuate crimes and scams. Be cautious of unknown parties while using these apps and attempt to arrange meetings in a safe public place.
- Immediately report suspicious or dangerous activity to the police by dialing 911.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation feels wrong or dangerous, it may be. Get away, call for help and listen to your instincts.
- Always be aware of your surroundings.
